Leadership Program Applications are Open

Cohort 17: A New Chapter of Leadership Growth

This cohort-based experience is designed for leaders seeking greater clarity and confidence as they step fully into owning who they are. Cohort members are equipped to lead with intention, courage, and conviction to create meaningful impact that extends across organizations, communities, and beyond titles or roles.

Through immersive learning, executive-level dialogue, one-on-one coaching, and a dynamic peer network, cohort members strengthen self-leadership and develop the skills and perspective needed to navigate complexity and lead effectively within their organizations and communities.

Leaders who are ready to invest in their growth and expand their influence are encouraged to explore the program and apply. Alumni, partners, and organizational champions are invited to share this opportunity with visionary leaders, emerging talent, and those shaping the future of leadership through development, investment, and succession planning.

Applications close Tuesday, June 30, 2026, at 4:00 p.m.

15 Years of AALP Impact, Told Through Alumni Voices

Angela S. Adams

Alumni Spotlight

This month, AALAM celebrates the continued leadership and visibility of our President and CEO, Angela S. Adams, whose leadership extends the presence and influence of AALAM regionally and nationally. Angela was recently recognized by Milwaukee Magazine as Woman of the Week, honoring her designation as a Woman of Distinction for leading boldly. This recognition reflects the values at the heart of AALAM—leadership rooted in purpose, service, and long-term impact.

Angela is a featured speaker during the She Stands Tall® Women's Entrepreneurship Week panel, Rising Together: Inspiring the Next Wave of Women Entrepreneurs, on Tuesday, May 12. She will share insights on leadership, entrepreneurship, and supporting the next generation of high-performing talent.

This visibility coincides with a meaningful moment for the organization, as this month's Alumni Spotlight highlights the ongoing success and leadership of our alumni—an essential reminder that AALAM's impact is strengthened through strong leadership at every level.

Together, these moments underscore Angela's continued focus on leadership excellence, community connection, and collective advancement.

In addition to Angela's role as President and CEO of AALAM, she also serves on the Board of Regents for the Universities of Wisconsin and is the Founder/CEO of Sage where she continues to champion leadership and high performance across organizations and communities.

Cohort 16: Presence, Purpose, and Connection

This month, Cohort 16 focused on strengthening leadership presence, leading careers with intention, and turning purpose into action. Through a fireside conversation on leadership presence, cohort members examined how confidence, authenticity, and self-awareness shape leadership impact.

At Baird, cohort members refined their personal brand and learned strategies to build a personal board of directors and networks that support long-term growth. At Froedtert, a panel of program alumni shared how they brought their Personal and Professional Strategic Plans to life through intentional planning and values-aligned decision-making.

These insights continue to shape cohort members' own Strategic Plans as they advance final group projects and engage in one-on-one coaching—reinforcing leadership grounded in confidence, connection, and purpose.

Introducing the AALAM Leadership Series

Leadership is not static – it evolves through courage, reflection and practice. At AALAM, we believe leadership is most powerful when it is grounded in purpose, strengthened through skill building, and amplified through shared experience. That belief is what inspired the launch of our new AALAM Leadership Series.
